FROM CROSSING LINE Game With Harbard

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 2. The possibility of a football game with Harvard on October 25 has roused the Pennsylvania State student body to a high pitch of enthusiasm. Graduate Manager R. H. Smith received a telegram this morning from Graduate Treasurer F. W. Moore of the Harvard Athletic Association asking if Pennsylvania State was open to an offer for a game at Cambridge on the date made vacant by the cancellation of the entire schedule of Norwich University. Nothing definite will be known until after a meeting in New York to-morrow morning and until a satisfactory agreement could be reached between Villanova and Pennsylvania State for cancellation of a game scheduled Lightly Weighted Three-Year-Old Finishes Two Lengths in Front.

Special Cable Despatch to THE Sts. Special Cable Despatch to THE SIN.
LONDON, Oct. 2.—There was a sonsational finish to the Jockey Club stakes of $50.000 run at Newmarket to-day, when August Belmont's great racehorse.
Tracery failed to carry the crushing impost of 148 pounds to victory. The threeyear-old Cantilever, owned by Lord Harewood, provided the upset by winning by two lengths from Tracery. Cantilever was in receipt of thirty-four pounds in weight from the Belmont crack, but even at that difference was not supposed to have a chance to win.

Tracery had been carefully prepared for the race and it was only a few days ago that Mr. Belmont refused an offer of $200,000 for the colt, which has proved himself the best on the English turf. Trainer Watson had cabled to America that the Belmont entry was in the best possible condition and the result was that many thousands of American dollars were cabled back to be wagered on Tracery.
